

IS IN HIS NEW HOME.

The Governor Has Taken Possession of "Dundee," His Country Place.

TO RESIDE THERE THIS SUMMER.

Will Return to the Executive Mansion in the Fall, But Will Reside in Chesterfield Upon Retiring from Office.

Governor O'Ferrall and family are now domiciled at "Dundee," their lovely suburban home, adjoining Forest Hill Park, and will remain there until cold weather. In the mean time the Executive Mansion will be closed.

There is hardly a lovelier spot around Richmond than Forest Hill, which is noted for its natural beauties, and "Dundee" is situated on one of the most prominent eminences in the vicinity of the park. The house, a beautiful one, both from an architectural and picturesque point of view, is built upon a crest, and is so situated that from the leased, otherwise he was sent under guard to "the lobby." In this way many dangerous characters were entrapped, of whom a few were executed, and the remainder kept out of the way of doing mischief. The particular badge in question, preserved by a mere accident, was the one worn by a gallant young Virginian, Washington Nelson, of King George, now of Washington city, a lineal descendant of the illustrious George Mason, of Gunston, who, abandoning a lucrative position in California, at the call of his native State, bore his part in her service as well as to assist General Robert Lee a personal letter—which the writer has seen and which is a patent of nobility in itself—testifying, as it does, to his gallantry, bravery, and efficiency in the Confederate cause.

As a contribution to the history of the time it is hoped that other comrades will give their recollections of so much an incident as that of the "Beauregard badge." Respectfully,
G. WASHINGTON BALL.

Death of Mr. M. L. Percival.

Mr. Maurice L. Percival died at his residence, No. 507 west Clay street, at 2:15 o'clock yesterday morning, in the 61st year of his age. Deceased had been an invalid for the past eight months. Mr. Percival was born in Lynchburg, but removed to this city fourteen years ago, and was honored and respected by all with whom he came in contact. He leaves a widow and five children. It is a

POWHATAN TROOP MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED AUGUST 20th.

Judge Ingram to Be the Orator and Military to Attend—Attempted Robbery at Woodland Heights—Other Items from Manchester.

The Powhatan Troop Association will, on August 20th, unveil the beautiful monument erected at Powhatan Court-Rouse in memory of the fallen members of old Powhatan Troop, Fourth Virginia, Cavalry, Stuart's Division.

Though the final arrangements for the ceremonies have not yet been perfected, it is known that Judge John H. Ingram will be the orator of the day. The probability is that the Manchester Grays, and Company B, First Virginia Regiment, will be present. After the ceremonies incident to the unveiling a big dinner will be spread for the crowd of people who will be in attendance.

The monument was designed by Captain Edgerton S. Rogers, of Richmond, and fact worthy of notice that this is the first death to occur in Mr. Percival's family for forty years.

The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, and the interment will be made at Riverside. Rev. Dr. Hatcher will perform the ceremony.

Rev. W. H. Reynolds will assist in the service. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. P. J. White, R. T. Davis, B. P. Cooby, R. A. Pillow, C. Carter, E. W. Gates, W. R. Thomas, E. M. Foster. The family request that no flowers be sent.

A LIGHT SATURDAY DOCKET.

Few Cases of Interest Before the Justice Yesterday Morning.

The proceedings in the Police Court yesterday were short, and in the main uninteresting.

James Brown, the small mulatto boy, charged with stealing a leather satchel, containing two suits of clothes and other wearing apparel, valued at $63, from Mr. George Hutchinson, was given ninety days in the city jail. It will be remembered that the boy was given the satchel to take on an errand, but this he failed to do, appropriating the enclosed articles to his own use. Several witnesses testified in behalf of the prisoner, but the evidence for the Commonwealth was too strong, and the boy was easily convicted.

George Oliver Taylor, the 18-year-old colored boy who assaulted and struck Master Charles P. Epps with a stick on Friday night, an account of which appeared in yesterday's Dispatch, was required to give security of $100 for ninety days. This light punishment was given in consideration of the prisoner's age.

The case of Richard Johnson (colored), charged with stealing a dress, the property of Mary Davis, was dismissed, there being no evidence against the accused.

Richard Robinson, a white man, was charged with being drunk, and also with resisting Police Officer McCallum. Robinson found the officer to be the better man.

The prisoner made his appearance with a knot on his head, which was bleeding slightly. The Justice thought the man had been punished sufficiently, and so he was discharged.

Knights of Honor Meeting Tuesday Night.

The Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Honor, at its recent session at Louisville, made some radical changes in the assessment system of the order. As there are a large number of members in Richmond, comprising ten lodges, the Grand Lodge have decided to meet the members at E. E. Lee Camp hall, on Broad between Fifth and Sixth streets, Tuesday evening next to explain to them the operation of the new system. Among the speakers who will be present are Judge R. H. Prentiss, of Suffolk; Rev. H. M. Hope, James R. Lamkin, and George I. Currie, Grand Director, of Richmond.

Supreme-Dictator John Mulligan, of New York, is also expected. There will be a large turnout of the members to greet these gentlemen, no doubt.

Smithfield Literary Society.

A meeting of the Smithfield College Literary Society will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock in the college rooms. An interesting feature of the evening will be a lecture on "Standard Money and the Law," by Professor Alwood. All students and ex-students of the college, and any others who may wish to hear the money question discussed, cordially invited.

Orders for printing sent to the Dispatch Company will be given prompt attention, and the style of work and prices will be sure to please you.

There, if he could prove his innocence by reference to his officers, he was re-

Thalhimer's Midsummer Clearance. Thalhimers.

JULY 26, 1896.

THE END OF THE ROPE has nearly been reached; by tugging and pulling may loosen the peg or slip the rope; in other words—
THE END OF THE SEASON is almost upon us. We must prolong the season, or, rather, the shopping as much as possible. The summer stock is too large; we are resolved to clear it up, so will make a big pull at our stake—will rid ourselves of the tether by cutting and slashing prices ridiculously. We must own up—we have entirely too much stock. The is the method we have adopted to stretch our tether, to clear out our stock. This is the second week of this sale, also the second week for the attainment of money-saving articles that throng our store with ready purchasers.

Wash Goods. We don't hesitate to say we are overstocked—it ought to be good news for you. We mean to move them though—by cutting prices will do it. See these:
10 and 12½c. Gingham, lovely quality and styles, now 5½c. a yard.
5c. quality Apron Check Gingham, 3½c.

Summer Outings and Flannellettes, that were 10 and 12½c., now 5 and 6½c. a yard.
Ducks and Piques, that were 8-13 and 10c., now selling at 5½c. a yard.

Yard-Wide Percales, that were 8-13 and 10c., now selling at 5½c. a yard.
Organized, Dimities, and Lawns, that formerly sold at 10 and 12½c., now to be had at 5-10c. a yard.

Handkerchiefs. These to go in the big sale. Sounds funny; don't it, but they were touched up at a lively rate.

Ladies' All- linen Handkerchiefs, embroidered and hemstitched, worth 25c., two for a quarter.

10c. article, Very Sheer Lawn Handkerchiefs, hemstitched, 7c. each, or four for 25c.

Artificial Flowers. The demand was not equal to the amount purchased. The goods are all right—just too many.

25c. wreath of Daisies, 25c.
25c. wreath of Buttercups, 15c.
50c. bunch of Lilies, 35c. (White or Lavender.)
